Press Release

Gujarat NRE to sponsor Australian Trade Commission ("Austrade") Seminar series in India on "Doing Business and Investing with Australia"

Kolkata, 13 January, 2012: Gujarat NRE, the largest producer of met coke in India with mining facilities in Australia, is the sponsorship partner for the seminar series named: "Doing Business and Investing with Australia" Organized by Austrade with Sponsorship Partner Gujarat NRE.

The seminar series will be held from 30th January 2012 to 10th February, 2012 in New Delhi, Ahmedabad, Mumbai, Kolkata, Chennai, Hyderabad and Bangalore, as well as in Chandigarh, Jaipur and Pune. The objective of the seminar is to highlight the opportunities that Australia presents as both an investment destination and as a trading and business partner, across multiple sectors. Austrade works with both Australian and Indian companies to accelerate and grow the commercial and business linkages between Australia and India.

Gujarat NRE owns and operates two premium hard coking coal mines in the Australian state of New South Wales, which have more than 650 million tons of Coking Coal resources with excellent coking properties. The hard coking coal production of the Company is being increased from the current level of around 1.5 million tonnes per annum (MTPA) to 6 MTPA by 2015, thus making us one of the top 10 hard coking coal producers in the world.
